2.1. Describe Processes Followed to Ensure Quality of Teaching & Learning (20)

The institute (Dr. B. C. Roy Engineering College, Durgapur) and the programs are affiliated to a University, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad University of Techr per the scheme and syllabus of the affiliating university. In this regard, the Department Academic Committee (DAC) is framed, which comprises the Head o the syllabus provides opportunities for students to acquire appropriate knowledge, skill, and attitude. It also helps to identify the curriculum gaps.

This process involves the following set of activities:

- The curriculum maintains the balance in the composition of basic science, humanities, and professional courses and their distribution in core and elective cours university frames and reviews the curriculum from time to time by the board of studies.
- Based on the university curriculum, each faculty frames the course outcomes and assigns a cognitive level for each course outcome according to Bloom's taxo map the COs with the corresponding POs and PSOs based on correlation levels (1- slightly, 2- moderate, 3- substantially). This also identifies the extent of cor the university course-wise curriculum for attaining the POs & PSOs.
- Program curriculum compliance is verified by creating the CO-PO matrix information of all courses. Mapping helps to identify whether the curriculum meets t the same time, the level of attaining the POs by the curriculum. The same process is extended to the COs-PSOs matrix. From mapping, curricular gaps can be i Identify the POs and PSOs which are not mapped in the program. Discuss/ suggest possible ways to fulfill the identified gaps in the form of workshops/ semin experiments/invited talks/guest lecturers/expert lectures/ industrial visits etc.
- The POs and PSOs attainment is calculated considering cumulative internal examination and semester-end examination. Feedback are also collected from exte stakeholders like alumni, graduates, and employers for indirect attainment of POs and PSOs.

The Process for attaining the Program Outcomes (PO) and Program Specific Outcomes (PSO) is shown in Fig.2.1.1.
